The stage was beautifully decorated its path. With a puff of its mighty breath the with foliage, plants and fragrant flowers, forming a setting for the bright, smiling faces of the west wall. Joseph Watt, an employe, was the graduates, who had at last reached the final goal in their preparatory career. The members of the faculty gave dignity to the occasion by their presence, while the groups of appreciative friends and acquaintances that filled the chairs listened and applauded everything that was said and done. The Marine Band played ome of its attractive selections, and came in the medical department, and Dr. George B. Atkinson, in the dental department.

The property loss in the vicinity will exceed $40,000. Crops are leveled everywhere. Wires are down south and north, and the ugliest of Atkinson, in the dental department.

THE COLORED RACE.

Opening of the Second Annual Conference at

The second annual session of the Lake Mononk (N. Y.) negro Conference was formally opened yesterday morning. The following officers were elected: Chairman, ex-President Rutherford B. Hayes; secretaries, Rev. S. M. Newman, D.D., Washington, D. C., Rev. S. J. mined that there was no objection to a church Barrows, Mrs. J. C. Barrows of Boston. Exec-Newman, D.D., Washington, D. C., Rev. S. J. utive committee-Rev. Lyman Abbott. D.D. president; M. E. Gates, Rev. M. E. Strieby, Mr. H. O. Houghton, Rev. S. M. Newman, D.D., Rev. A. W. Pitzer, D.D., John Philip Garrett and Rev. Wm. Hayes Ward, D.D.

In his opening address ex-President Haves quoted freely from a recent report of the Rev. Dr. Haygood, declaring that the chapter that tells of the work and the results in educating the negro in America is not matched in any history of any age. Ex-President Hayes called attention to two facts pregnant with good for the future well being of both races in the for the future well being of both races in the south. First, commerce, manufacturing, mining, farming and other forms of enterprise are giving to the south all the material prosperity needed for the highest civilization; and, second, the increase of the colored population, as shown by the recent census, while it has been during the last decade healthful and normal, is not exessive nor such as to excite the slightest not excessive nor such as to excite the slightest concern as to the ultimate good relations between the races if controled.

Last evening the Rev. S. J. Barrows of Boston gave an address on his recent trip through the south to study the situation of the negro and to get the negro's view of the situation.

his report was an encouraging presentation of the industrial, social, religious and ethical de-velopment of the negro.

At the morning session Rev. Dr. A. W. Pitzer of this city spoke as a southern man on what has been done for the negro in the south. He declared that every door was now open to the declared that every door was now open to the negro, both as a citizen and as a man. Dr. William T. Harris, the United States commissioner of education, gave tables of statistics showing the progress in education in thirteen years. While the white population had increased 13 per cent the school population had nearly doubled. In the case of the colored people it had more than doubled. Dr. Harris urged that all who gave money for education in the south should give it for primary education.

A YOUNG WIDOW ARRESTED.

Mrs. Young of Westchester, Pa., Charged With Poisoning Her Husband. Mrs. Blanche Woodward Young, the beautiful

eighteen-year-old widow of J. Norris Young of Westchester, Pa., was arrested yesterday on the charge of having administered the poison which caused her husband's death. Mrs. Young, when the warrant of arrest was read to her, broke down and sobbed convulsively, protesting her innocence and frantically imploring the officers not to take her to prison. At the hearing in the afternoon many neighbors testified that the couple lived unhappily together. The principal direct testimony was given by Mrs. Mary Ipard, a near neighbor of the Youngs. She said she frequently heard the Youngs. She said she frequently heard the couple quarreling, and told of a conversation in the course of which Mrs. Young said that she hated her husband, and that she would "give him a slow dose some day." Mrs. Ipard testified further that the young wife often expressed her admiration for young men in the neighborhood and dislike for her husband.

Dr. Formad, the Philadelphia expert, testified as to the result of his examination of the stomach which had been taken from the exhumed body of Young. He found, he said, sufficient arsenic therein to have produced death.

Dr. Jordan, who was Young's attending physician, and who gave a certificate of death from cholera morbus, said his suspicious as to the case were not aroused until the day before the man's death. He, however, had no real basis for suspecting wrong, and so gave the certificate.

At the conclusion of the testimony Mrs. Young was remanded for trial, and she went sobbing to her cell, with her year-old boy in her arms. IF You Want a RELIABLE DYE that will color an even brown or black and will please and satisfy you every time use Buckingham's Dye for the

PANIC AT A RACE TRACK. A Cyclone Causes Terror and Destruction at

A cyclone carried death and destruction in Kentucky yesterday. It also swept through fury was mostly spent. The storm came on about 3 o'clock, after an exquisitely fair though warm day. It was preceded by a rain of phe nomenal violence. It did some damage at the First Regiment armory and with the league ball park in the west end. At Covington, Ky., The Academy of Music was the scene last it raged in the northern part among the trees evening of the interesting and attractive grad- and outbuildings, tearing down all it touched.

From the shops the storm took an air lin to the Latonia race track. Several thousand people were on the grounds when the storm began. There was a rush from the grand stand, but before the people could get away the wind had torn the shutters and awnings from the club house, had picked up rods of stabling and shook them to pieces, scattering the broken timbers through the air with frightful noises. some of its attractive selections, and came in for its share of attention from the audience. Bishop Hurst, the chancellor of the university, made an address in which he spoke of the progress made in the science of treating the diseases to which flesh is heir to, and said that the additions to the profession of well-equipped young men gave the highest promise for its future.

The address to the graduates was delivered by Prof. George W. Weste, while the valedictory of George B. Atkinson was well conceived and delivered in an interesting style Two prizes were given this year by Mr. T. J. Newton. They were $50 to the pupil in each department securing the best average in written and oral examination in all his branches. These prizes were awarded to Dr. Theo. A. Erck, in the well-equipped cannot be estimated.

The property loss in the sir with frightful noises. Next it began to toss about the seats in the grand stand. That started a stampede. It was an awful scene. Men cursed and yelled; women, white faced, shricked their fear as they clambered deliriously toward the earth. Scores sprang out into the race track, and through the blinding rain made for the open paddock. A dozen fainted. More were half demented. It seemed an age before the wind was gone, leaving behind a rain the like of which was never swen, and in it were hundreds of dripping women and soaked men. No one was seriously hurt, but scores had to be taken home prostrated. The loss to Latonia is $5,000. The loss on the hundreds of handsome toilets utterly ruined cannot be estimated.

The property loss in the vicinity will exceed the property loss in the vicinity will exceed the property loss in the vicinity will exceed the property loss in the property loss.

Miss Mary Emerson, aged sixty-five, who conducted a small farm and boarding house on High Rock street, Dedham, Mass., was found dead in a small closet in her kitchen Tuesday night. Marks on her throat indicated that she had been strangled. The motive for the mur-der was evidently robbery. A German named August, who worked for Miss Emerson, is sus-pected. He has fled. His roommate, Philip Hoffman, is under arrest, but is not suspected of the crime. The missing German is about twenty-six years of age and recently came from St. John N. R.
